Estonia and flashes in the eyes - NHS

Then, suddenly, I saw a star-like pinpoint of light flash into existence, and then out again, gone in the time it takes a star to twinkle once (maybe a half second or less). Wondering if it was a high altitude airplane's head or tail light or a satellite turning and flashing in the sunlight high above, I kept watching, expanding my area of focus to keep it in sight as it moved.

Night sweats are hot flashes that happen at night, and they may disrupt your sleep. Although other medical conditions can cause them, hot flashes most commonly are due to menopause — the time when menstrual periods become irregular and eventually stop. In fact, hot flashes are the most common symptom of the menopausal transition.

A flash in the night
In the changing of the season
Releasing one lost name
The scar once healed forever
Dissolving in the rain
A twig snapped in the clearing
A glimpse of golden skin
My face within
My despair was caught in motion
A face just barely true -
Shadows in blue
A flash in the night

Causes and remedies

Meteors, are pieces of space rock and dust that impact the Earth's atmosphere. When this happens, friction between the atmosphere and meteor causes the meteor burn up in a flash or streak of light. We often romanticise this as a shooting star. Some meteors are tiny and barely noticeable, lasting a fraction of a second.
